

When the month on month figures have been seasonally adjusted, the monthly changes usually operate in a very narrow band of between + and - 1.5%. There is no pattern in the changes other than a slight similarity between one year and another when some successive months are examined. Whilst the figures are seasonally adjusted, the effect of weather conditions cannot be predicted and clearly affected what happened in January.

Commercial Due Diligence
Commercial Recovery
Performance Improvement

A full set of Consumer Indicators are available on www.stepsolutions.co.uk CLICK HERE for full details

