

The chart looks at food sales in predominantly food stores, comparing the percentage year on year changes in value and volume. In every month during the last two years the rise in value has been greater than that in volume. The gap tended to widen during 2008 to one of around 7%. It has now narrowed significantly to little more than 2.0% but with both at significantly low levels.

Commercial Due Diligence
Commercial Recovery
Performance Improvement

A full set of Consumer Indicators are available on www.stepsolutions.co.uk CLICK HERE for full details

