

Apart from 2009, which was an unusual year, average weekly earnings normally peaks around February and March as a result of annual bonuses being paid. Apart from January and February 2009, the monthly changes in 2009 and 2010 largely mirror each other with the level of earnings being consistently between £2 and £12 per week greater.

Commercial Due Diligence
Commercial Recovery
Performance Improvement

A full set of Consumer Indicators are available on www.stepsolutions.co.uk CLICK HERE for full details

