

Changes over the previous month inevitably lie within a narrow band. With the index having declined in the way it has, the monthly changes are more frequently negative. Throughout almost the whole of the fifteen months to February 2009 the index was lower than the month before. March saw a departure from this pattern after which all but one of the monthly changes have remained positive.

Commercial Due Diligence
Commercial Recovery
Performance Improvement

A full set of Consumer Indicators are available on www.stepsolutions.co.uk CLICK HERE for full details

